ARREST OF A SAMPLE SELLER. - While | SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.] Mayor Latham was sitting in the drug store of Messrs. Warfield & Hall yesterday evening a man named George Sturgis came in and at once commenced to make a sale by sample of Grosvenor's porous plaster. Now, if there is one desires carried into effect more than another, it is that which secures to the tax paying merchants of the city their licensed privileges, and so without more ado Mr. Sturgis was arrested, the Interior to the Department of Justice, fined for an infraction of the city law, turned was referred. over to a magistrate, and held in security for his appearance at Court to answer for an off-nee against the law of the State.

TRAVELLING ON A PASS. - A man giving his name as Henry Sacket was arrested here yes terday evening by the police as a suspicious character. When carried before the Mayor he could give no account of himself, but exhibited a pass from Secretary Fish, for which he said he had paid $2, which vouched for his good character. The pass was of no service to him, however, and he was told ! at the sooner he left the city the better it would be for him.

LOST HIS HAND .- Mr. John J. Rippon, o millwright, well and favorably known in all this section of the State, accidentally lest his hand in a saw mill in Santee Agency, Nebraska Territory, a short time since. Mr. Rippon was one of those who left Virginia with Mr. S. M. Janney when the latter was appointed Indian Agent.

> POLICE REPORT. -- Affairs at Police Head quarters were very quiet this morning. The disorderly proceedings at the colored festival in progress at the corner of King and Henry streets, still continue, but as the disturbance is within doors, those engaged in it can not be arrested. NIGHT REPORT .- Night clear and bright and the temperature mederate. The attendants at the colored festival, at the corner of King and Henry streets, were, if any thing, more noisy than ever, and consequently, more annoying to the neighbors. Two colored balls were in progress at Fishtown, but they were conducted quietly. Two lodgers were accom-modated at the watch house.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HABITUAL CONSTIPATION. HOW TO EFFECT A CERTAIN AND PERMANENT

CURR. Some occupations of life pradispose to Cos tiveness, especially those which allow but little exercise. Persons who contract this unfortunate habit of body, under such circumstances, might possibly be relieved by changing their sedentary employments for others of a more active kind; but this is by no means certain .-Habitual constipation is a very obstinate dis-order. All the ordinary so-called remedies inveriably aggravate it. Nothing can be more injurious than the continued use of strong aperients. They at first irritate, and finally almost paralyze the bowels-rendering them so torpid that enormous doses of cathartic medicines have no effect upon them. A mild aperient, combined with a gentle stimulant, is the true remedy; and a combination in the happiest proportion, of these ingredients, is found in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters This tamous Stomachic invigorates the whole intestinal canal, while quietly removing from its convolutions all impediments to a free passage through them. No mere purgative has this double operation. No ordinary stimulant effects the desired object. Cases of Constipation abandoned as hopeless by distinguished medical men have been cured in a few weeks by the Bitters. To those who have tried all the medicines of the dispensary in vain, we say try this irresistible stimulant and aperient. There is no sufficient reason why constipation should be the consequence of sedentary habits. Hostetter's Bitters, by supplying the vigor which would otherwise be derived from exercise, will in all cases enable the system to perform its excretory functions regularly and healthfully. dec 5-eolw GRAPE WINE.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of the public to Speer's celebrated Port Grape Wine, a pure and unadulterated grape wine, upon which every one having occasion to use wine may most implicitly rely. The wine is made at Speer's vineyards, Passaic, N. J. It has a rich flavor, mellow juiciness and brilliant color, and is not only an agreeable beverage, but highly beneficial in its properties. We know this to be the fact, having tried the article thoroughly. Use Speer's Bottled Wines with his signature on the cork, and you are sure of getting a pure article .-

During the discussion of the Postal bill, in the House of Representatives yesterday, Mr. McKenzie said, he had last session voted for the abolition of the franking privilege, but ho confessed he regretted that action. He would explain practically how this thing worked. He was President of a Railroad Company which was paid for carrying the mails, and it would not cost the Government any more or any less whether the amount of mail matter carried was a ton or a pound. They were paid a stipulated price to carry the mails without reference to bulk. The South did not want the franking privilege abolished. What they wanted was information in the cheapest and best form, and they could get a vast amount of information by the use of the franking privilege which assisted in the sending of documents all over the country. He had voted for the abolition last year because the petitions sent out by the Postoffice Department had been signed by a large number of his constituents, but from subsequent inquiry he was satisfied that out of the 120,000 people he represented not more than one thousand were in favor of its abolition. This thing of abolishing the privilege was in his estimation all a humbug, and no one expected that the Senate would ever act upon the House bill .-The speaker and every member here knew that it was not the intention of the Senate to pass the bill, for every time it was called up Senators found it convenient to call up some other special matter.
